Discussion Board Handout

Each week, students will write a brief reaction towards an idea prompted by the reading. Feel free to write about the course material, or group project (once we get group projects started), or anything in response to issues that we discussed in class the previous week. For particular readings, I may help initiate reactions on the discussion board.

The discussion board is located on Davidson's Blackboard system (<http://blackboard.davidson.edu>). Everyone enrolled in the class should have access to Blackboard – use the same userid and password that you normally use to access college computer network resources (without the “davidson/”). If you are having problems accessing Blackboard, please let me know.

A good discussion board posting will be at least a paragraph; but please do not write more than three paragraphs. They can also be responses to previous posts, but should not be ad hominem. It is always a good idea to cite particular quotes from the readings, followed by your reflections or comments. If you do cite a particular reading, please add some citation material (at least a page number) so that others can situate the quote.

Discussion Board posts are due by Monday at midnight each week. LATE SUBMISSIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. You only need write a post to get credit for the assignment.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email me!
