Expected Grad Year

Read and initial to acknowledge that you understand the following:

- _____ I understand that in some circumstances, a double major may not be possible if too many courses overlap between the two majors.
- _____ I understand that it may be possible for a maximum of two courses to count toward both majors, but permission must be received from both departments.
- _____ I understand that while a student may satisfy requirements for two majors, there is only one degree; a student who completes majors in departments offering different degrees must choose the degree, either Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science.
- _____ I understand that a student may not be awarded a minor or an interdisciplinary minor in addition to a second major.
- _____ I understand that attaining a double major presents disadvantages as well as advantages. Studying abroad during the academic year may require considerable planning; summer study for academic credit might become necessary; and the opportunity to take electives may be reduced.
- _____ I understand that time conflicts between classes may occur as late as the second semester of the senior year, making it impossible to fulfill all the class requirements for both majors.
