COVID-19 Creative Initiative Grant

Davidson Arts and Creative Engagement
Submit application to Sherry Nelson, shnelson@davidson.edu

This new grant has been designed in response to the cancellations and sudden transitions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The COVID-19 Creative Initiative Grant (CCI) offers Davidson students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to collaborate and focus on creative projects in a time of uncertainty. Successful proposals will showcase the power of art to connect and engage the global college community.

Grant Details:
- Current Davidson students, faculty and staff may apply for up to $1,000.
- Projects must involve a component that is accessible to the general public.
- Special consideration will be given to cross-discipline and collaborative proposals.
- Projects must align with the latest college health and safety guidelines at www.davidson.edu/alert/covid-19.
- Upon completion of the activity, grant recipients will present their work on a digital platform and provide a short statement describing the experience.
- Proposals will be accepted on a rolling basis through May 15, 2020. Decisions will be made within 1-2 weeks after submission.
- Grant activities should take place by March 1, 2021.
- The following activities are not covered by grant funds:
  - Projects related to student capstone projects, theses, or coursework;
  - Payments to Davidson affiliates;
  - Expenses incurred prior to the receipt of the grant award.
