

Newly Established Scholarship Funds

Malú Alvarez Visual Arts Scholarship—Established by Malú Alvarez, Class of 2002, this scholarship is in support of students who are passionate about and display a strong engagement with the visual arts.

Kristin Atkins Scholarship—Established by Kristin Atkins, Class of 1994, this scholarship provides assistance for students, preferably from Virginia, Maryland or Washington, D.C., with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Robert and Sharon Baker Scholarship—Established by Sharon and Robert Baker, Class of 1967, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Dr. Cole Barton Scholarship—Established by Susan and Joe Harvey, Class of 2009, in honor of longtime Davidson Professor of Psychology, Dr. Cole Barton, this scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

William E. Blackwell '54 Scholarship—Established by Elizabeth L. Blackwell in memory of her husband, William E. Blackwell, Class of 1954, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Elizabeth Broadus Memorial Scholarship—Established by Lucy Eastwood Broadus, Class of 1992, in memory of her mother, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need, preferably from either the African continent or the Caribbean.

Dr. Walter L. Brown Scholarship—Established by the late Dr. Walter L. Brown, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Buck '72 Scholarship—Established by Brantly Buck, Class of 1972, and Kathleen Price Buck, this scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Chamby Family Scholarship—Established by parents Etsuko and Dan Chamby, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Cheerleading Pooled Scholarship—Established by supporters of the Davidson College Spirit Team, this scholarship provides assistance for cheerleaders.

Cross Family Swimming Scholarship—Established by Ann and Roane Cross, Class of 1969, this scholarship is in support of extraordinary scholar-athletes in the men's and women's swimming program.

Davidson Aspire Scholarship—Established by parents Beth L. Burrough and David R. Ramsay, this endowed scholarship is in support of students with demonstrated financial need.

William E. Graham Jr. Scholarship—Established by Sally and Joe Helweg in honor of Sally's father, William E. Graham Jr., this scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Richard C. Halton '77 and Jean-Marc Frailong Scholarship—Established by Richard C. Halton, Class of 1977, and Jean-Marc Frailong, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Pauline and James Hardy '65 Scholarship—Established by Pauline and James Hardy, Class of 1965, this scholarship provides financial support for an outstanding varsity athlete.

Hyman Scholarship—Established by Melissa and Andrew Hyman, this scholarship provides assistance for a student with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Robert T. Johnson Scholarship—Established by Peter B. Johnson, Class of 1979, in memory of his father, Robert T. Johnson, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Dr. Oksoon Kim Scholarship—Established by Dr. Oksoon "Olivia" Kim, friend of Davidson College, this endowed scholarship provides support for students with demonstrated financial need in their junior or senior years, with a preference for students who intend to pursue medical careers and are members of a Presbyterian church.

MacMillan Golf Scholars—Established by Jennifer and Stephen MacMillan, Class of 1985, and inspired by the players and coaching leadership, this endowed scholarship program is in support of extraordinary scholar-athletes in the men's golf program and makes this Davidson College's first fully endowed athletic scholarship program.

Mauzé Family Scholars Program—Established by Alison Hall Mauzé, Class of 1984, and Michael B. Mauzé, Class of 1985, this endowed scholarship program provides assistance to students with demonstrated financial need, with a preference for those who bring a diversity of compelling personal attributes, talents, aptitudes or perspectives, and are likely to enhance student life to Davidson College.

Julien L. McCall '42 Scholarship—Established by Julien L. McCall, Class of 1942, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Reverend Charles McRae '28 Scholarship—Established by the late Rev. Charles F. McRae, Class of 1928, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Niepold Scholarship—Established by John Niepold, Class of 1984, this scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Cintra Pollack Scholarship—Established by Cintra Pollack, Class of 1999, this scholarship provides assistance to a Jewish student with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

John Howard Roe Jr. '69 Scholarship—Established by John H. Roe Jr., Class of 1969, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need from Middle Tennessee, preferably those with a rigorous academic record, are Eagle Scouts and have demonstrated civic involvement and community leadership.

Tim Saintsing Scholarship—Established by Tim Saintsing, Class of 1998, this scholarship provides assistance for a student with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Susan J. and Robert M. Smith Davidson Trust Scholarship—Established by friends of Davidson College, Susan J. and Robert M. Smith, this scholarship provides assistance for a student with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Ross J. Smyth Scholarship—Established by parents Andy and Elliot Berndt, in memory of Elliot's father, Ross J. Smyth, Class of 1958, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.