Your personal statement should include the following:

- What academic deficit(s) do you have (e.g., short credits, low CUM GPA, no WRI 101, etc.)?
- Has this deficit been resolved (e.g., via classes taken at another institution)?
- If the deficit has been resolved, have you provided an official transcript from the other institution? If not, please send an official transcript as indicated above.
- If the deficit has not been resolved, what is your plan?
- What are your long-term academic plans to graduate in a timely manner?
- What strategies will you employ to prevent this from reoccurring? (e.g. working more closely with holistic or major adviser, using the CTL, etc.)

The answers I have provided are complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
